

Digital Initiatives Bootcamp: Launching digital projects at small institutions with limited resources

Amy Bocko, Emerson College, amy_bocko@emerson.edu

ACRL NEC, May 12th, 2017

Digital Initiatives Bootcamp resources to consult

Presentation: goo.gl/18iLzM

Digital Initiatives Bootcamp Drive folder: goo.gl/WqivXI

Sample work plans/scanning guidelines: goo.gl/4sanSK

Planning a digital project worksheet: goo.gl/YqcBh5

Resources List: goo.gl/d9URdn

Outside Resources

FADGI Guidelines: <http://www.digitizationguidelines.gov/>

Guidelines and best practices for digitized/born digital archival content. FADGI addresses the needs of both still images and audio-visual, and is a helpful resource to consult when establishing standards for a new digitization projects.

Trello: <https://trello.com/>

Free web-based project management platform. You can configure your boards to match your workflow.

Health Check Tool for Digital Projects: goo.gl/n9c4KH

Worksheet developed by Ithaka S+R to evaluate the ongoing needs and sustainability of digital collections. The Sustainability Health Check Tool is most relevant for established digital programs, but is helpful when considering a 360° view of digital projects and their lifecycle.